8:45 am Key Note Speaker: Mack Turner - Safety Leadership – What we as Leaders Often Overlook

Good leaders are most always good at getting the job done but sometimes get lost in the minutia and overlook the important things. This is a fast-paced fun presentation that reminds us as leaders of what is the most important aspect of our daily duties. Leaders will re-learn basic leadership principles that will assist them in focusing on what is most important each day. They will leave this presentation with renewed vigor and the commitment to lead responsibly.
